Athlete Profile

- Dodd was first introduced to the sport through his father who skied with the Llewellyns as a child.
- He considers his greatest influence to be Jaret Llewellyn. "Since I was a little kid, he has been my role model as well as my coach. He is the best overall skier in the world and he is what I hope to be someday," he said. "I am happy now to be able to compete against him in the events throughout the year."
- Dodd also enjoys hockey, working out and fixing up his Chevy truck.
- Ryan earned a full scholarship at the University of Louisiana at Monroe where he won two National Team titles, three National Collegiate titles and two Overall titles. He graduated with a Bachelor's degree in Management and Marketing.
- Ryan reached his goal of achieving a medal at a World Championships when he took the bronze medal in 2009 in Calgary, Alberta.
- In the future Ryan hope he will "be ripping harder and flying further."
