Athlete Profile

- Rusty learned to wakeboard at Stoney Lake, just outside of Humboldt behind his dad's small outboard fishing boat, which proves that you don't need a big buck boat to get started!
- Career highlights include competing on the Pro Wakeboard Tour, and travelling to the 2003 and 2004 WWC World Championships
- Rusty was first introduced to the sport though his friends, and has kept it up ever since
- Future goals include continued improvement in his riding
- His other interests include moto cross, BMX racing, hockey and racquetball
- His favourite quotes are "grip it and rip it" and "go big or go home"
